

The Contra Costa HIV/AIDS Consortium is Seeking New Members

Volunteer Opportunity

The Contra Costa HIV/AIDS Consortium is recruiting new members and we need your help with identifying some great people.

The Consortium advocates on behalf of people living with HIV/AIDS and makes recommendations on the use of Ryan White funds in Contra Costa County. In addition, the Consortium plans and coordinates services, and advises governments and community leaders while providing support for those living with HIV/AIDS.

Active members work to improve the quality of HIV care and prevention services in Contra Costa County.

The Consortium membership strive for balance in gender identity, ethnicity, geographic representation, sexual orientation, people living with HIV/AIDS, concerned local community, faith leaders, business people and providers/administrators of services to people living with HIV/AIDS. Everyone's expertise is equally valued. Prospective members should live, work, or access health care in Contra Costa County.

COMMITMENT ~ Members of the Consortium are expected to:

Attend and actively participate in scheduled meetings. Complete a state-mandated conflict of interest form and keep up to date on local HIV/AIDS activities in Contra Costa County.

BENEFITS ~ Members meet policy makers and service providers; help to improve the lives of people living with or at risk for HIV/AIDS; network with others concerned about HIV/AIDS; receive updates on special events, programs, and awareness activities throughout the year.

The Consortium meets on the second Monday of each month from 10:00-12:00 noon. Meeting locations rotate to each region of the County. More information about the Consortium is available online at <http://cchealth.org/aids/consortium/>

If you are interested in participating please contact Nga Le at 925-313-6941 or via email at nga.le@hsd.cccounty.us.
