

CADTP AOD Counselor Certification, the CAODC (Certified Alcohol & Other Drug Counselor) is accredited by NCCA and California DHCS and is valid in any AOD/SUD setting. CAODC Counselors may work in Residential, Outpatient, Detox, or any other setting under DHCS SUD. <http://www.dhcs.ca.gov/provgovpart/Pages/CounselorCertificationOrganizations.aspx>.

Transfers to CADTP for CAODE Counselors are free. Visit our AOD Counselor page at www.cadtp.org or click the link for transfer information. <http://www.cadtp.org/component/content/article/41-aodcounselor/53-reciprocity>.

Current transfer time on COMPLETE transfer applications is 3 weeks. Incomplete applications, missing documents, expired or close to expired certification or registration delay the process. Don't wait to submit, the closer to the DHCS June transfer deadline the longer the processing time will be as we expect an influx of submissions. Submit today to ensure your certification/registration remains in good standing. The transfer is easy; just follow the checklist on the application.

NOTE: Transfer is free, renewal is not. Counselor certification or registrations expiring in March, April, May or June send the Transfer AND Renewal.

Transfers must complete the transfer application and submit the following with the application: <http://www.cadtp.org/downloads/aod-reciprocity-application.pdf>

- CADTP Code of Ethics & Code of Conduct <http://www.cadtp.org/downloads/aod-code-ethics.pdf>
- Copy of current certification/registration
- Copy of State ID or Driver License - must be a clean copy in which the picture is recognizable

Do NOT fax the transfer application, faxing does not provide a clear picture ID. SCAN and email to info@cadtp.org or mail to CADTP 1026 W. El Norte PMB #143 Escondido, CA 92026.

Certification renewal applications must include: <http://www.cadtp.org/downloads/aod-renewal-application.pdf>
