The screenshot shows the homepage of the Contra Costa Health Services website. At the top left is the logo with a sun and the text "CONTRA COSTA HEALTH SERVICES". To the right is a navigation menu with links for "Newsroom", "About Us", "Divisions", "Jobs", "Provider Information", and "Contact Us". Below the navigation is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search cchealth" and a magnifying glass icon. A dark grey navigation bar contains the main menu items: "HOME", "TOPICS", "SERVICES", and "HEALTH COVERAGE". On the right side of this bar are social media icons for Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube. The main content area features a large photograph of a diverse group of people smiling. To the right of the photo is the headline "Working With You." followed by the text: "Our advisory boards are led by area residents, giving us the ability to respond more effectively to the needs of the community." Below the photo and headline is a grey bar with the text "Welcome to Contra Costa Health Services". At the bottom, there are two columns. The left column is titled "I Want To . . ." and lists categories: "Behavioral Health", "EMS", "Environmental Health", and "Hazardous". The right column is titled "LATEST NEWS" and shows a news item dated "Jun 14 | Media Advisory" with the title "Public Forum June 21 about Potential Disposal of Radioactive Materials at Keller Canyon" and a link to "Keller Canyon Landfill Investigation Webpage". A yellow arrow points to the bottom right corner of the page.
