Immediately resolve homelessness once in system

System-Wide Intervention for all populations
Rapid Resolution Results

156 contacts

90 referrals

Housing Security Fund used 26 times

45 cases successfully diverted!
Rapid Resolution
Success Story
April - July 2019

1. Client first contacted 211 explaining they were being evicted in 3 days and had nowhere to go. *Client had never been homeless before.

2. Rapid Resolution - Client was referred to Rapid Resolution. RR contacted Bay Area Legal Aid about client’s eviction notice.

3. Bay Area Legal Aid - DALA was able to extend client’s eviction notice from April to July 14th.

4. Housing Navigation - Housing Navigator searched for new housing for client that fit the client’s individual needs. Housing Navigator found a landlord willing to accept a voucher and make the unit wheelchair accessible.

5. CORE - CORE collaborated with Housing Navigation to obtain a wheelchair and walker for client and assistance in obtaining client’s birth certificate.

6. Contra Costa Health Services - Public Health Nurse referred for assessment to a public health nurse to assist client with obtaining an in-home support worker.

7. Shelter Inc. - Client referred to Shelter Inc, REACH Plus program to provide temporary rental assistance and up to one year of case management.

8. Contra Costa Housing Authority - 211 contact to provide rental assistance.

Stable Housing - Client has now moved into their own apartment in Antioch where Housing Authority will be able to provide rental assistance.
