

CONTRA COSTA
YOUTH CONTINUUM OF SERVICES

Mission Statement

CCYCS's mission is to successfully integrate homeless and runaway youth back into the community with the skills, resources, and community network necessary to achieve and maintain a better quality of life.

CCYCS operates with the philosophy that every young person has the ability to make good choices for themselves, when provided with gentle guidance, support, and positive opportunities.

We value the diversity, determination, resiliency, and strength that all youth bring to our doors.

CALLI HOUSE

Calli House, based in Richmond, is a short-term housing and supportive services program for up to 4 months. It is designed to address the immediate needs of runaway and homeless youth ages 18-24 in Contra Costa County. Available 24 hours per day, the program is a safe haven off the streets, with the capacity to serve up to 15 youth. Youth receive intensive case management services and are reintegrated back into the community.

DROP IN SERVICES are Monday through Friday 12-1pm homeless youth may access drop-in services including food, clothing, showers, crisis intervention, counseling, life skills education, and other supportive services.

HEALTHCARE is provided through an adolescent health clinic on-site at Calli House. Sponsored by Health Care for the Homeless, a Nurse Practitioner provides health assessments, physical exams, immunizations, STD testing, and family planning services. Dental and mental health services are also provided on-site.

APPIAN HOUSE

Appian House is a 6-bed transitional living program in El Sobrante for youth who are homeless or exiting the foster care system. Youth ages 18 through 24 are eligible for entry and may stay up to 24 months. Staffed 24 hours a day, residents are provided guidance and support to develop the life skills necessary to secure and maintain employment, address their health needs, and sustain long-term housing.

POMONA ST. APARTMENTS

Pomona St. Apartments, in Crockett, CA is an up to 24-month independent living program for youth ages 18-24 who have demonstrated readiness to live independently and ability to engage in meaningful daily activities. Pomona Apartments is comprised of 5 separate apartments within one gated community. A co-located staff office offers youth onsite supportive services during day hours.

PERMANENT CONNECTIONS

Permanent Connections provides subsidized permanent housing linked to services for homeless youth with chronic mental illness, HIV/AIDS, developmental, or physical disabilities. Youth over the age of 18 receive “wrap-around” support services that assist them to not only maintain, but thrive in their housing.
