

COMMUNITY MEETING

PHILLIPS 66 REFINERY RELEASE LEARN WHAT HAPPENED

On June 15, a chemical release at the Phillips 66 refinery in Rodeo sent a “rotten egg” odor out into the nearby communities. Contra Costa Health Services, Supervisor Federal Glover and Phillips 66 would like to talk about the incident, the coordinated response and answer questions from the public.

Join us on Monday, July 2, 2012
7 to 9 p.m.
Crockett Community Center
850 Pomona Street
Crockett, CA 94525

- »Learn what happened
- »Hear about the health risks
- »Find out what is being done
- »Ask questions

For more information about the community meeting, contact Hazardous Materials Ombudsman Michael Kent at 925-313-6587.

