

Communities Coming Together

The Consortium advocates on behalf of people infected with and affected by HIV/AIDS. The Consortium plans and coordinates prevention and care services, and advises government bodies and community leaders while providing support for those at greatest risk for HIV and those living with HIV/AIDS.

People Coming Together

What we like about participating in the Consortium:

- ♥ “Giving back to those who have given so much to me”
- ♥ “Working with dedicated people and agencies”
- ♥ “Advocating for changes to improve our system of care”

About the Consortium

The Contra Costa HIV/AIDS Consortium is a network of people dedicated to improving the health and well-being of individuals and communities impacted by HIV/AIDS. Members reflect the diversity of Contra Costa and include representatives from agencies that provide HIV/AIDS prevention and care services, people living with HIV/AIDS, concerned community members, and staff from Contra Costa Health Services.

The Consortium meets at least quarterly and all meetings are open to the public.

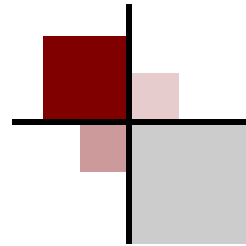

The Consortium is responsible for developing recommendations about programs and services, areas of greatest need, and the best methods to meet those needs for Contra Costa residents.

Medi-Cal covers many services for people living with HIV/AIDS. Learn about Medi-Cal services and eligibility by calling the Employment and Human Services office.

In Contra Costa County call 1-800-709-8348 for assistance.
