NOMINATION FORM

Description of Nominees Contribution

To complete your nomination, please type and respond to the following questions as clearly as possible. Your response and nomination should distinctly indicate or list actions of the individual who exceeds the normal expectations of their job as an employee or volunteer. The goal of the People Who Make a Difference annual award is to honor individuals and groups who distinguish themselves from everyone else and can be recognized as exceptional, or whose ideas have resulted in actual change.

- 1) What did this individual/group do to combat alcohol and other drugs?

- 2) How did the result of their efforts “Make a Difference” in curtailing alcohol and other drugs?

- 3) Please list or describe any additional information you consider necessary. Feel free to attach more paper as needed for further comments. You may also include newspaper clippings, public acknowledgements, or publicity, which highlights the effort of the nominee.
