Recruitment is Open for 3 Public Member Seats on

The Contra Costa Integrated Pest Management Advisory Committee

The Contra Costa Integrated Pest Management (IPM) Advisory Committee is seeking applicants to fill 3 public seats—1 regular seat, 1 alternate seat, and 1 environmental organization seat. Applicants must demonstrate knowledge of integrated pest management and interest in and commitment to improvement of IPM practices in Contra Costa County. Applicants must live or work in Contra Costa County.

The following are special conditions for the Environmental Organization Seat:

- An environmental organization is defined as an organization that has as its main focus the protection, enhancement, and enjoyment of the environment and/or the education of the public about the protection, enhancement and enjoyment of the environment.
- The organization must have 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) status.
- An individual must apply to represent a specific organization, and in order to apply, must have a letter of support from the organization.

Applications must be received by 4:30 PM on Friday, November 9, 2018 in the office of the Clerk of the Board: 651 Pine Street, 1st Floor, Martinez 94553.

All persons who apply by the deadline will be interviewed on Monday, December 10, 2018.

The IPM Advisory Committee is appointed by the Board of Supervisors to advise them on issues involving pest management and pesticide use on County-owned and County-maintained property. The 13-member Committee is composed of representatives from the County Departments of Agriculture, Health Services, and Public Works; the County Stormwater Program; the County's Sustainability Commission; the County's Fish and Wildlife Committee; a local environmental organization, the County's current pest management contractor; three public members, and a public member alternate. The Committee's purview includes pest management in County facilities, in County landscaping, and along County roads and flood control channels.

Regular meetings of the IPM Advisory Committee are held on the third Thursday in the months of January, March, May, July, September, and November from 10am to noon at the County Department of Agriculture in Concord.

An application form can be obtained in the following ways:

1. Calling the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors at 925- 335-1900, or
2. Writing to or visiting the Clerk of the Board at 651 Pine Street, 1st Floor, Martinez 94553, or
