Current County info at coronavirus.cchealth.org. Urge all BHS staff to follow the safety precautions given by the Public Health Officer. Do not take risks. Followed restrictions and kept numbers low. Numbers increasing now. We continue to take seriously. Working to flatten the curve. Looking at congregant care centers. Urge all to stay vigilant, keep up the good work. • Update on Forensic Assertive Community Treatment (FACT) AB109 and Supporting Individuals with Mental Health Needs Coming Out of Locked Facilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ State Juvenile Justice System dismantled – now under local control – unknown funding sources at the moment ○ Met with Police Chief of Walnut Creek. In contact with Chief of Police in Pleasant Hill and Martinez. Was working on regional crisis response, but then Shelter in Place occurred. Recently met with the Chief of Police for Richmond and Concord. ○ Discussed a Mobile Crisis Response Team (MCRT) that is paired with police and models – MCRT used by Seneca, Mental Health Evaluation Team (MHET) (clinician paired with officer), PERT (San Diego), Los Angeles model, CAHOOTS model (no officers). Will combine the best features for best model for this County. 		Suzanne Tavano, Director, Contra Costa County Behavioral Health Services

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ The Sheriff is not under the jurisdiction of the County Board of Supervisors. Mental Health Commission Justice Committee will discuss issues. ○ South County not represented on maps. Disparity of benefits due to MediCal or private insurance status. Since COVID-19, 4000 new MediCal enrollees. Will engage private insurance sector. ● Mental Health Services Act (MHSA) Update on State Level Discussions and the MHSA <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Anticipate reduced realignment funds and MHSA funding – CalAIM project put on hold ○ Due to State error, Counties need payback funds to State ○ Anticipate 13% less realignment dollars for 3-5 years ○ MHSA Three Year Plan – will get revenue payment this year. Anticipate decline next 3-5 years. Have extension due for next Three-Year Plan to June 2021. ○ The Board of Supervisors have budget hearing August 5th ○ Not filling some vacancies, do not anticipate cuts. ○ Hope to be able to sustain what we have. Anticipate no changes to Prevention, Education, Intervention (PEI) ○ Anticipate cannot do planned expansions ○ Focus on how we can support people in crisis and maximize services ○ Housing with services still very important for the County ○ Provided an MHSA update to Family and Human Services Committee of the Board of Supervisors – will get a response in September re the next Three-year Plan ○ Updated Board on Needs Assessment for Psychiatric Emergency Services (PES). Will apply for grant. ● Comments and Response to Questions ● Sharing Census 2020 Video created in partnership between Putnam Clubhouse and Stephen Boyd from the Office for Consumer Empowerment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Viewed the Census video performed by Stephen Boyd.
