Code of Conduct

Introduction
In an effort to maintain the high standard of conduct expected and deserved by the American public and to enable the organization to continue to offer services required by those in need the CCC MRC operates under the following Code of Conduct applicable to all Members. Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in removal from the mission/event, suspension from duty, dismissal from the Organization, or other adverse action. Each case of misconduct will be handled by the Unit Leader, or designee, and forwarded to the Advisory Board as appropriate.

1) A member will not lie, cheat, or steal, nor tolerate those who do. Dishonesty in this organization is detrimental to its mission.

2) A member will not commit, including through inaction or omission, any act constituting conduct unbecoming a member.

3) Falsification of documents, records and statements is prohibited. His or her actions may be considered grounds for permanent removal from the CCC MRC.

After accepting an assignment, failure to report for duty when and where assigned, without notice, is considered misconduct.

5) Inappropriate, offensive or profane language, attire or behavior is not allowed.

6) Members will strictly adhere to the chain of command. When in a field environment, members are responsible for knowing who their immediate supervisor is at all times, based on their current duty assignment, and shall follow the direction of that supervisor. Criticisms, complaints, and concerns are to be channeled up the chain of command, or submitted to the Unit Leader in writing following the mission. If a concern involves a member’s supervisor, then the member may bring the concern to the supervisor’s supervisor.
