

CHS RESOURCES FOR SCHOOLS

School-Based Health Clinics

Services include well-child exams and sports clearances, reproductive health care, immunizations, minor sick care, dental services and behavioral health services.

- Elementary Schools: 925-266-1644
- Middle Schools & High Schools: 925-608-5116
- Dental Program: 925-494-8024

Children's Oral Health Program

Oral-health education and dental assessments. 925-313-6280

Communicable Disease Prevention & Control

Investigates reports of suspected cases of serious communicable diseases, including measles and tuberculosis. 925-313-6740

Immunizations

Clinic schedules, record lookups and translation of foreign immunization documents. 925-313-6767

Lead Poisoning Prevention

Provides education and information about lead sources and case management services for children with elevated levels of lead.

925-313-6763

Nutrition Education

Promotes eating healthy and exercise during the school day and in afterschool programs. 925-313-6829

Safe Routes to Schools

Leads walk-to-school events and organizes educational assemblies.

925-313-6813

Sexually Transmitted Disease (STD) Prevention and Control

Condom distribution and STD education. 925-313-6750

Teenage Pregnancy Prevention Program

Education at middle schools and high schools in Richmond, San Pablo and Pittsburg. 925-313-6250

Volunteer Opportunities

People 16 and over can apply to volunteer at Contra Costa Regional Medical Center and provide support to patients and medical staff.

925-370-5440

Walking and Bicycling Promotion

Educational traffic safety programs, bike helmet giveaways and bicycle rodeos. 925-313-6845